PROJETECH INC. ANNOUNCES CHANNEL PARTNER AGREEMENT WITH MRO SOFTWARE

CINCINNATI, OH, February 3, 2006 - Projetech Inc. announced an agreement to enter into a Channel and Support Partner agreement with MRO Software, Inc. (Nasdaq: MROI), the leading provider of strategic asset and service management solutions.

Under the terms of the agreement, Projetech will become an authorized reseller of Maximo® Enterprise Suite (MXES) software and services and provide Level I support to customers. Maximo Enterprise Suite provides a comprehensive solution for companies that are seeking increased business performance from improved asset and service management. MXES is a comprehensive suite of products all built on a single technology platform. It combines enhanced Enterprise Asset Management functionality with new service management, service desk; IT asset management and IT service management capabilities that together improve the effectiveness of asset management programs.

"Projetech is excited to partner with MRO Software to jointly improve Maximo client satisfaction," said Steven K. Richmond, President/CEO at Projetech Inc. "Our shared vision made this a natural partnership."
