JULIE SHAW RECEIVES PROJECT MANAGEMENT EXCELLENCE AWARD FROM PROJETECH, INC.

Cincinnati, OH, September 25, 2007 — Julie Shaw, Instructor/Project Manager at Projotech receives the Project Management Excellence Award for her achievements in the first half of 2007.

The Project Management Excellence Award is given biannually to the Project Manager that demonstrates “above and beyond” efforts for clients and for Projotech. Candidates are selected solely by votes from other Projotech Project Managers.

“Julie’s peers chose her for many reasons, but her leadership in successfully managing a huge training project was especially noteworthy,” says Debbie Herbers, Operations Manager. “She worked a lot of extra hours and spent the majority of her summer on the road, yet was still responsive when we needed her to juggle other duties during that time. We are all very impressed by her work.”

Shaw came to Projotech in 2006 from Beaumont Services Company as Assistant Director of Information Systems, where she spent many years working with Maximo. Previous awards include Start Magazine’s Technology and Business Award, which she received for her Maximo work in the Healthcare sector.
