PROJETECH INC. LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

Cincinnati, OH, June 29, 2007 — Maintenance and reliability professionals visiting www.projetech.com will find a new look to Projetech, Inc's website. In addition to the new overall look, the new site features a client login area for eMaintenance®, Maximo® hosting and MSA clients, improved navigation, and an added search feature.

"We have been working hard at redesigning our site to be more user-friendly," says Projetech Marketing Associate Jeanne Cost. "We want Maximo users to consider our site as a daily tool and resource for them. Not only does our site promote all the Maximo-related services that we can provide, but we also give away free monthly Maximo tools and tips, provide a library of links and resources, and keep users up to date on the latest Maximo news."

Projetech President/CEO Steve K. Richmond agrees, "Projetech has always been focused on educating maintenance and reliability professionals and we are taking that one step further with the new website."
